Scott Mathias (guitar)
Kelly Peak (bass guitar)

Pretend I'm a Genius has been a consistent presence on the Chapel Hill/Carrboro music scene since 2015. With all three members of the band writing and shaping the material, the Pretend I'm a Genius catalog is notable for its varied mix of songs. The band's devotion to elevating each member's creative vision shines through in their tightly-integrated sound. Although mostly-known for their driving, alt-rock sound, the band has also created acoustic versions of some core songs. Fans of these acoustic sets have appreciated the clarity of vocal harmonies and more intimate overall sound. In either type of show, Pretend I'm a Genius provides opportunities for listeners to dance and enjoy their time together.

Our full album, Float on Black, was released in March 2018. Pretend I'm a Genius members bring differing yet compatible life experiences to the table and provide three distinct voices to the tracks. Some songs are amusing, others have space and sci-fi themes, and still others are introspective and a touch melancholy. Listen to songs from Float on Black online on these websites:
